NEWS

February 2005

6	Ferry terminal upgrade nears completion (city scene) The $10.5 million stage one upgrade started in 2003 is nearly complete
15	Safety appeal as rail services expand (New Zealand Herald Matthew Dearnaley) There is a greater death toll at crossings and stations in Auckland, following a 30% leap in patronage since 2003.
18	Bury Glen Eden rail station (New Zealand Herald Matthew Dearnaley) Auckland regional Council transport chairman Joel Cayford proposes that the station at New Lynn should be under-grounded.
24	City train carriage fire (New Zealand Herald Matthew Dearnaley) a railway carriage fire near the approach to Britomart station thankfully caused no casualties that raised questions over the need for better and more effective evacuation procedures.