

NEWS (Civic Trust Auckland archive)

July 2009

2	Dinosaur Lady Joan Wiffen dies at 87 (New Zealand Herald NZPA)
2	Foreshore and seabed row has lost its heat (New Zealand Herald editorial)
2	Marathon task for MPs on super city committee (New Zealand Herald Bernard Orsman)
2	Party central-pedestrian friendly ideas for Queens wharf (New Zealand Herald Bernard Orsman)
2	Surprise rebuff for housing plans near Ardmore airport (New Zealand Herald Wayne Thompson)
4	Party central-veranda plan proposed by architects Copeland associates (New Zealand Herald Bernard Orsman)
4	Harvest of houses-developments that Stonefields (New Zealand Herald Andrew Laxon)
5	Auckland super city-Auckland city submissions (City Scene) Mayor John Banks notes that "protecting architectural and natural heritage and creating new public spaces, like a waterfront that all citizens can access and enjoy, will be the building blocks for the Auckland of the future".
6	Nonsensical approach to quarrying hits rock bottom (New Zealand Herald Richard Michael)
6	Hearings for super city under way-local government Minister Rodney hide to give boards more power (New Zealand Herald Bernard Orsman)
7	Waterfront dream now within reach (New Zealand Herald Judith Bassett)
7	Aucklanders stick with their cars (New Zealand Herald Simon Collins)
7	Quarry planning and heavier trucks are both current issues (New Zealand Herald letters to the editor Dick Bellamy and W. Bonetti)
8	A layman's guide to understanding customary title (New Zealand Herald Sir Douglas Graham outlines the government's choices on the seabed and foreshore issue).
8	No reason for foreshore angst (New Zealand Herald Brian Rudman)
8	Quarry planning and heavier trucks are still both current issues (New Zealand Herald letters to the editor J. Draper and Niall Robertson)
9	Protesters win battle for Te Arai beach south of Mangawhai (New Zealand Herald Wayne Thompson)
9	Ministers sides with Baker's in opposing folic acid additive (New Zealand Herald Martin Johntson) See also " don't tinker with our daily bread" New Zealand Herald editorial July 10.
10	Party central-new look wharf competition open to everyone (New Zealand Herald David Eams)
10	Super city southern boundary excluding Auckland's water supply dams is nuts (New Zealand Herald Rudmans city quoting Mike Lee)
11	ARC rejects bid to tip waste on Puketutu island (New Zealand Herald David Eames)
11	Architectural drawings see rare light of day (New Zealand Herald Adam Gifford) Display in the Gus Fisher Gallery in upper Shortland Street coincides with the 28th annual meeting of the Australia and New Zealand Society of architectural historians.
14	World Cup target for $430 million Victoria Park motorway tunnel (New Zealand Herald Matthew Dearnaley)
16	Old Mangere bridge a bridgehead to great future (New Zealand Herald Joseph Barratt)
16	Backyards to be blitzed-motorway widening at Massey (New Zealand Herald Joanna Davies)
16	Party central spending of $84 million sells out development in the suburbs (New Zealand Herald Joseph Barratt)

17	Reinstating birdcage Tavern no problem (New Zealand Herald Matthew Dearnaley) See also " Teflon pads plan to shift heritage pub-Matthew Dearnaley July 20)
17	Hauraki Gulf needs national park status (New Zealand Herald Christine Fletcher and Jim Holdaway)
17	$160 million New Lynn railway trench speeds ahead (New Zealand Herald Matthew Dearnaley)
20	Suspension of folic acid scheme deplored (New Zealand Herald Martin Johnson)
20	Bee disease-don't take for granted what nature provides free (New Zealand Herald Denise Bester)
21	Folic acid potato too hot for food Minister (New Zealand Herald John Armstrong)
21	Minister give pork sector hurry up on sow crates (New Zealand Herald NZPA)
22	Full cost of heavier trucks questioned (New Zealand Herald Matthew Dearnaley)
22	Super city-power to the people may backfire (New Zealand Herald Andrew Braggins)
22	Sir Ed would welcome truce agreed over papers (New Zealand Herald editorial) Common sense finally prevails in the latest Auckland Museum problem decision.
24	Devastation hits historic Moscow's skyline-Auckland is not alone (New Zealand Herald - Independent)
24	Mangere arts Centre take shape after 16 years (New Zealand Herald Valmoana Tapaleo)
28	National cycleway proposal-struggling region's welcome Trail news (New Zealand Herald Jared Booker)
28	Key's cycleway will do little to create jobs (New Zealand Herald John Armstrong)
28	Kyoto debt wiped out by trees (New Zealand Herald NZPA)
28	Cycleway on track as other ideas hit ditch (New Zealand Herald editorial)
29	Big ideas for old train hub at Parnell and new train hub at Ranui (East and bays Courier Michelle Cooke)