

NEWS (Civic Trust Auckland archive)

November 2009

1	Tamaki Drive safety issues to be discussed (City Scene)
3	It is not about rail economic viability but transport practicality (NZ Herald Tim Davin IPENZ)
5	Party central – Queens wharf contest a sham says art critic Hamish Keith (NZ Herald Ellen Dorset)
5	Party central – Competition woefully briefed and lacked business plan (NZ Herald letters Stephen Smythe-former president Architectural Association)
6	Party central – Plug pulled on heavily criticised design contest (NZ Herald Bernard Orsman)
6	Party central – The last thing we need is the cheap and nasty (NZ Herald Rudman's City)
7	Party central – Don't let Queens wharf fester on the back burner (NZ Herald Editorial)
9	Tagging study pours cold water on old remedies (N Z Herald Alanah May Eriksen)
9	Hide's Watercare defeat our gain (N Z Herald Brian Rudman)
9	$4.7m pledged to combat deadly Kauri disease (N Z Herald Eloise Gibson)
11	Historic St David's may become a primary school (East and Bays Courier Carly Tawhiao)
11	Party central-Planning lunacy again on waterfront (East and Bays Courier Pat Booth)
12	Helensville commuter link to be Cut (N Z Herald Mathew Dearnaley)
12	The carbon bill: tax payers 84% - farmers and big industry 16% (N Z Herald Brian Fallow)
13	Cold remedy for $5m graffiti bill (N Z Herald Brian Rudman)
	The Redvale Lime planning nightmare (Business to Business November)
15	Submissions on Auckland's transport future close 18 December (City Scene)
15	Mountain Fountain relocated to Holy Trinity Parnell (City Scene)
17	Another sorry chapter in emissions farce (N Z Herald editorial)
17	$50b rise in carbon scheme costs shows process too rushed (New Zealand Herald Brian Fallow)
17	Plan for saving Sir Ed's house up in air (N Z Herald Alanah May Eriksen)
17	Revised Britomart hotel plan derided (N Z Herald Bernard Orsman) The proposal is opposed by NZHPT, Allan Matson (of Civic Trust) and 62 others and is much the same as the previous proposal opposed by Civic Trust and many others.
18	St Heliers fire station demolished (East and Bays Courier Melanie Verran)
19	Lopdell House upgrade and additions at resource consent stage (the Aucklander Joanna Davies)
19	Tepid baths to be closed 4 years for $12m upgrade (N Z Herald Valmoana Tapaleao)
19	Carbon trading an indulgence we can't afford (N Z Herald -John Blakeley Unitec)
20	Tepid baths repair closure criticised (NZ Herald Brian Rudman)
24	Tank Farm: Road widths and public space to be cut back (N Z Herald Bernard Orsman) Note: Civic Trust Auckland is shocked by these "developer compliant" Council proposals.

25	$1bn Electric rail and rolling stock go ahead to Papakura and Swanson by 2013 (NZ Herald Mathew Dearnaley) 114 EMUs to be provided, of 140 sought under $500m funding cap.
----	---