

Auckland Heritage Festival Seminar: A Beginners Guide to Understanding Your Place.

By John P. Adam, Endangered Gardens. 3RD AND 8TH October, 2015.

Background

John Adam is an independent and experienced landscape heritage consultant with over 30 years of experience of field research - interpreting physical places, boundaries and garden elements - and assessing public archives and records and report writing. Heritage landscape assessments commissioned have included 19th century parks to mid-century modernism landscapes - cemeteries, urban parks, agricultural, tourist sites, urban places, gardens and trees.
